17 ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO WITHDRAW

18 [Re: ECF 119]

19 Plaintiff's counsel, Stephen Noel Ilg of ILG Legal Office, has moved to withdraw as 20 counsel for Plaintiff. ECF 119. The parties appeared for a hearing on June 23, 2016, Defendants 21 did not oppose the motion, see ECF121, and the Court orally GRANTED the motion to withdraw.
22 Accordingly, this Order memorializes the Court's ruling that Mr. Ilg's motion to withdraw has 23 been GRANTED effective June 23, 2016.

24 In her Opposition to the Motion to Withdraw, Plaintiff requested a 30-day stay to retain 25 counsel. Because the trial date is approaching and the Court has granted numerous stays in this 26 same circumstance already, the Court DENIES the request for a stay.

27 The Court advises Ms. Williams that it is imperative that she comply with all rules, 28 deadlines, and Court orders. See King v. Atiyeh, 814 F.2d 565, 567 (9th Cir. 1987) ("Pro se litigants must follow the same rules of procedure that govern other litigants."). The failure to prosecute this action or comply with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Northern District of California's Civil Local Rules, or Court orders or deadlines can result in the dismissal of this case with prejudice. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

29 Ms. Williams may wish to contact the Federal Pro Se Program, a free program that offers 30 limited legal services and advice to parties who are representing themselves. The Federal Pro Se

1 Program has offices in two locations, listed below. Help is provided by appointment and on a 2 drop-in basis. Parties may make appointments by calling the program's staff attorney, Mr. Kevin 3 Knestruck, at 408-297-1480. Additional information regarding the Federal Pro Se Program is
